Selectmen's Report

To the Citizens of Whately:

In accordance with the requirements of the Statutes of Massachusetts, the following report for the year ending December 31, 1930 is respectfully submitted.

Following the reports of the town officers, is the report of Theodore N. Waddell, Director of Accounts, of an audit made in accordance with the Provisions of Chapter 44, General Laws.

The Town has been to considerable unforeseen expense owing to forest fires, and we are this year asking for an additional appropriation for the purpose of fire fighting.

As per statute requirements the town's boundary lines were perambulated this year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM G. STRIPPE,
CHARLES W. FIELD,
MICHAEL E. FLAVIN,

Selectmen of Whately.

The chairman of the Board of Selectmen wishes to impress upon the voters the importance of electing an Elector under the Will of Oliver Smith. This necessitates a "majority vote" which requires "one more than half" of the total votes cast. This result failed to be obtained last year. In part, the will of the late Oliver Smith reads—a town that "shall neglect for two successive years to choose an elector, such town so refusing or neglecting shall thereupon forfeit its right as one of the selected towns, to all the benefits of the miscellaneous funds."

I submit herewith my report of an audit of the accounts of the town of Whately for the period from December 20, 1928 to October 30, 1930, made in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 44 of the General Laws. This report is in the form of a report made to me by Mr. Edward H. Fenton, Chief Accountant of this Division.

Very truly yours,

THEODORE N. WADDELL,
Director of Accounts.

Mr. Theodore N. Waddell,
Director of Accounts
Department of Corporations and Taxation
State House, Boston

Sir:

As directed by you, I have made an audit of the books and accounts of the town of Whately for the period from December 20, 1928, the date of the previous audit, to October 30, 1930, and submit the following report:

The financial transactions of the town, as recorded on the books of the several departments, were examined and verified.

The licenses issued by the selectmen were listed from the record of licenses granted. The collections were compared with the treasurer's record of receipts and the cash on hand was verified.

The books and accounts of the town treasurer were examined and checked. The receipts were compared with the records of the various departments collecting money for the town and with the other sources from which money was paid into the town treasury. The payments were checked with the selectmen's orders authorizing the treasurer to disburse town funds and with the cancelled checks. The bank account was reconciled with a statement furnished by the bank and the cash on hand was verified by an actual count.

The cancelled notes representing the debt maturing and paid during the period of the audit were examined and the interest due and paid on such notes was proved.

The securities and savings bank books, representing the investment of the several trust funds held by the town were examined and checked. The income was proved, and the expenditures, as recorded, were verified.

The accounts of the tax collector were examined and checked. The tax accounts for the years 1927 and 1928, outstanding at the time of the previous examination, were audited.

The warrants for the commitment of poll, property, and motor vehicle excise taxes for the years 1929 and 1930 were reconciled with the commitment lists. The collections were compared with the treasurer's record of receipts, the abatements as entered, were checked with the record of abatements granted, and the outstanding accounts were listed and proved.

The outstanding accounts were further verified by mailing notices to a number of persons whose names appeared on the books as owing money to the town, the replies received thereto indicating that the accounts, as listed, are correct.

The cash in the hands of the collector was verified by an actual count.

The appropriations voted by the town were listed from the town clerk's record of town meetings, being compared with the aggregate amount expended from each of the several appropriations. It was found that the appropriation made for maintenance of a tractor in 1930 was overdrawn to the extent of $381.05, for the reason that the tractor's earnings were considered as available for expenditure in addition to the amount appropriated by the town for the maintenance of the tractor. In the previous audit attention was called to the fact that specific appropriations from tractor earnings accumulated and actually on hand may be voted by the town, and that the expenditure of receipts without appropriation by the town is in violation of Section 53, Chapter

44, General Laws, which reads as follows:

All moneys received by any town officer or department, except as otherwise provided by special acts and except fees provided for by statute, shall be paid by such officer or department upon their receipt into the town treasury. Any sums so paid into the town treasury shall not later be used by such officer or department without a specific appropriation thereof; except that sums allotted to town for highway purposes by the commonwealth or a county, which shall be used only for the purposes specified by the officials making the allotment or to meet temporary loans issued in anticipation of such allotment as provided in sections six or six A, shall be available therefor without any appropriation.

The receipts of the town clerk for dog and sporting licenses were checked and compared with the payments to the county treasurer and the Division of Fisheries and Game respectively, the cash on hand being proved.

The surety bonds of the treasurer, collector, and town clerk were examined and found to be in proper form.

The receipts of the sealer of weights and measures were checked with his record of weights and measures sealed. The payments to the treasurer were checked, and the cash on hand was verified.

The charges of the health and public welfare departments were listed, the collections were checked with the treasurer's receipts, and the outstanding accounts were listed and proved.

The accounts of the librarian could not be checked, as it was found that the librarian does not keep any record of money received from fines, etc. It is therefore recommended that adequate cash book records of all receipts in the library be kept.

It was found that the several cemetery commissioners have been collecting sums from individuals for the care of cemetery lots, or for opening graves, and have retained the money received as remuneration for their services. This procedure is in violation of Section 53, Chapter 44, General Laws, previously quoted. Proper records should be kept of all charges made, collections should be paid into the town treasury, while payments for services rendered should be provided for by appropriation at town meeting.

Ledger accounts were compiled and analyzed, and a balance sheet, which is appended to this report, was prepared showing the financial condition of the town on October 30, 1930.

In addition to the balance sheet, there are appended tables showing a reconciliation of the treasurer's accounts, summaries of the tax and departmental accounts, together with a statement of the trust fund transactions.

While engaged in making the audit I received the co-operation of all town officials, and on behalf of my assistants and for myself, I wish to thank them for the courtesies extended and the assistance rendered.

Respectfully submitted,

EDW. H. FENTON,

Chief Accountant.

Report of Cattle Inspector

The work of the Cattle Inspector has increased tremendously, within the year, as many are availing themselves of the Tuberculin Test.

Within the year 24 herds have been tested; or the applications are pending, and the clean-up work, following some of the tests, has been slow, which of course slows up the payments on indemnities.

I would urge you, if you have reactors to clean up your premises immediately and notify your inspector, so that an inspection can be made and reported.

The Director wishes also to caution those testing; against making any additions to their herds, without first seeking permission from the Director.

Respectfully,

WM. E. SANDERSON,

Inspector of Animals.

Gypsy and Brown Tail Moth

As in years past the roadsides, orchards and shade trees have been scouted for the Gypsy Moth, also as far inland as appropriation allowed. A badly infested section in the West part of the town needed extra attention this year and with a special amount of money asked for and received this was done under supervision of a state representative. (The latter with no added expense to the town). The co-operation of the Northampton Water Board on whose land the infection is, was greatly appreciated as work could be more carefully and speedily accomplished with the aid of their men cutting and burning brush. There is still much need of work in the outlying districts to prevent the spread of the Gypsy moth.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN J. FINN.

Local Moth Superintendent.

Superintendent of Schools

To the School Committee of Whately:

I submit to you my 4th Annual Report as Superintendent of Whately Schools.

In former reports I have dealt upon plans for organization of our schools and the advantages derived from such changes as have been effected. During the three years of my service our towns have felt the effects of agricultural depression. This year is hardly more promising. While as individuals we feel the necessity of temporary financial restriction, schools, like other institutions, extend the work over and beyond the present. The accumulated advantages of past years must not be discarded nor the promise of the future be imperiled by temporary depressions. As does the individual we may defer additional undertakings, but as administrators of and supporters of public education, we cannot cast aside its heritage of the past or imperil its future welfare. In such a policy we have been favored by the support of Whately citizens and in such a spirit we seek a continuance of this support.

The regular school work stressed in former reports has been carried on during the year with increased efficiency. The large eighth grade completing the Elementary course last June was one of the best in years. This year's class is not so large but one cannot but be impressed with their preparation and the quality of the work the pupils are doing. Due to this inequality in the size of the classes, it was possible to arrange some departmental work for 7th and 8th grades.

Owing to a large entering class at the Center School it was necessary to transfer pupils of grades 1-3 who reside East of the B. & M. R. R. to the East School. The distance is no greater and accommodations are ample and comfortable.

Some activities outside the daily routine have enlivened school life during the year. During the Winter and Spring the 4-H clubs were active in the South and East schools. At the South school Mr. A. B. Wolfram generously contributed his services in instructing the boys in woodwork. Besides making repairs about the building and their personal projects, the boys built a large table for out-of-door lunch purposes. At the East School the boys made a decided improvement in the playground. The upper grade girls in both schools had instruction in simple sewing projects and handicraft. Both schools have supplied themselves with athletic equipment and made extensive use of the large playgrounds connected with their buildings.

All schools participated in the Tercentenary plans outlined by the State Committee. In connection with the closing exercises in June a program rich in pageantry and local history was presented as a part of Whately's celebration of three centuries of New England history.

This Fall a Parents' Night was held in the East School. As large a part of the daily program as was possible was carried out in the four rooms by the teachers and pupils before large groups of parents and friends. The pupils responded splendidly to this evidence of parental interest and carried on their part with spirit, and confidence.

Other activities in which the school and community participated are detailed in the reports of the School Nurse and the Music Supervisor. These so-called extra-curricular activities detract not one whit from the traditional school work. They rather direct emphasis upon the real purpose of education—learning to live and work together as social beings not solely as individuals. Knowledge alone is not power. It is only powerful when applied to real life situations.

There has been a steady gain in regularity of attendance in all the schools. The much-desired attendance banner is found at one time in the Center School, again it graces the walls of some classroom in the East School, and again it may be found in the possession of some class in the South School. It has been proven that there is little disposition on the part of the pupils to absent themselves from school. There are, however, some parents who keep their children from school in violation of the attendance laws.

With few exceptions the large 8th grade completing their course last June entered high or vocational schools last September. There are now 36 students in Deerfield High School, 4 in Northampton High, and 11 in Smith Agricultural School—a total of 51, an increase of some 10 over last year. This is creditable to the aspirations of our young people and to educational sentiment of Whately parents.

Toward the expense of high school education the State reimburses the Town 50 percent but the 100 percent must come from the School budget before claim can be made for reimbursement. In meeting this expense we should not be compelled to unnecessarily limit our support of the local schools. There were increased expenses this year in the fuel, repair, tuition, and transportation accounts which decreases in salaries and operating expenses could not overcome. It was necessary to severely restrict expenditures for needed books and supplies and to ask the Town officials for aid in the Vocational tuition. The high school tuition bills are submitted in February and July and can thus be definitely provided for in the annual budget. Vocational tuition bills are rendered monthly and any increase in the September entering class cannot be calculated with accuracy. For this reason the law places the expense of vocational tuition on the Town instead of the School Committee unless provision is definitely made in the school estimate for this purpose.

I recommend that future budgets include a definite sum for this purpose and that the School Department accept responsibility up to that amount with the understanding that if that amount is exceeded additional funds be provided outside the regular school appropriation.

While State re-imbursements on account of schools were equal to those of 1929 increased returns may be expected the coming year in Transportation, Tuition, Vocational Education, and Part II of the General Fund accounts.

I wish to acknowledge my continued appreciation of the hearty cooperation of the Committee, and the teachers, and of the many courtesies extended to me by Town officials and citizens of Whately.

Respectfully submitted,

MARVIN E. JANES,

Supt. of Schools.

Supervisor of Music

Mr. Marvin E. Janes,
Superintendent of Schools
Whately, Mass.

Dear Sir:

I herewith submit to you my first annual report as Supervisor of Music in the Town of Whately.

I anticipate my visits to the Whately school because I feel that the effort I make is so satisfactorily reciprocated. After each lesson I give, I come away with the thought that I am helping to create in, I might say every individual child, a love for music and a desire to contribute to it. Each child appears to consider himself a necessary factor in the success of class work and consequently all happily take part. I know they feel real joy in music.

I visit the schools once a week and leave outlines with the teachers every two months.

In the South School we have formed a harmonica band which is very successful. Also in the East School we are forming a band which as yet is not fully organized. However, the pupils are enthusiastic about it and anxious to get started.

Members of the 4-H Club have asked me to help them with some songs for club work which means the music work in schools is being carried over to outside activities.

The music in Whately schools is remarkable and I wish to thank all teachers for their fine work.

Respectfully submitted,

ANN M. GILLERN,

Supervisor of Music

School Nurse

Mr. M. E. Janes,
Superintendent of Schools,
Whately, Massachusetts.

My dear Mr. Janes:

An epidemic of whooping cough swept thru the ranks of both the children in school and those too young to go to school, during the first three months of the year. A lack of recognition of the first cases by the parents and a carelessness about quarantine was responsible for its seriousness. Children excluded from school by teachers and nurse were sent back by some of the parents day after day because they bothered the parents at home. Sixty-two visits were made to the homes during these months to talk with the mothers about quarantine and the care of these sick children. Most of the parents were as anxious to do the right thing as the school authorities were to have them.

Children were taken home from school because of illness or because they needed attention which the parents could give. Parents have been saved much expense, children have had less suffering and absences have been reduced, by taking children to the physician for treatment, after obtaining permission from the parents to do so.

The usual routine measures of weighing and measuring, inspection of children, visits to each room to correct bad conditions, assistance with the annual medical examination and vaccination clinic have been carried on throughout the year. It was a happy day when the X-ray and chest examination of the three children taken to the Westfield State Sanatorium with suspicious symptoms of tuberculosis revealed that they did not have the disease.

Three children were given three weeks care at the Greenfield Health Camp at a cost of twenty dollars per child. Christmas Health Seals sold by the Franklin County Public Health Association paid for this care. Several children have had long needed operations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids.

One attended the clinic arranged by your nurse at Greenfield and was taken home from the hospital afterward.

Bertha Waite, Mary Gromaski and Mary Pasiecznik were chosen by the school physician as the three healthiest children to compete for the honor of Queen of Health in the Blue Ribbon Contest. A beautifully decorated float in pastel shades of orchid, green and yellow, with the slogan "Fresh Air for Health" did honor to Whately's Blue Ribbon Children in the Juvenile Parade at the Live Wire Fair in Greenfield. It was donated and driven by Howard R. Waite, and trimmed by Mrs. Fannie Finn and Mrs. Howard R. Waite. The Ladies Benevolent Society of the Whately Church donated ten dollars for the decorations. My grateful appreciation of the enthusiastic support of so many Whately people, children, teachers and community, is hereby registered.

This report indicates some of the needs for the coming year. One of these, more knowledge by the whole community of the measures necessary for the control of communicable diseases and greater desire by the few to carry those measures out, would appreciably lessen suffering of the children and what is far more important prevent much future suffering by these same children from the damage caused to hearts, eyes, ears and other organs by the so-called children's diseases. One of these diseases, Diphtheria, is more fatal in younger children than in older children, their need of preventive treatment is greater.

There is a serious need for a larger number of corrections of defects. Although the number of children who should be in special classes is not large, the problem presented by these children deserves our attention. At the present time, they get what they can absorb from grade to grade, but the sense of failure which is theirs, day after day, reacts badly on them. May I urge a careful study of their needs and extend my support for any action looking towards a solution of this problem.

My appreciation of the help and interest given me by parents, teachers and the school authorities, is hereby recorded.

Respectfully submitted,
ELSIE F. SMITH, R. N.
